

CRSMN

CRSMN aka John Michael Crissman from the Midwest (Illinois) is an inspirational Rap-Rock artist. He has achieved some success independently pushing his music and performing along side big names such as Insane Clown Posse, Ice Cube, Coolio, Tech N9ne, and many others. Before all this though John Crissman served in the United States Marine Corps and got out Honorably in 2008. A lot of his music seems inspired from his military days. His energy alone moves crowds.
